Section	VI: Complementary information

Section VI: Complementary information

VI.1) This is a recurrent procurement:

It is expected that this will be a recurrent procurement, and if required, further notices shall be published prior to the termination of any new contract that result from this procurement exercise.

VI.2) Contract related to a project and/or programme financed by Community funds: No.

VI.3) Additional information:

This procurement procedure is governed by the Decision of the European Central Bank of 3.7.2007 laying down the Rules on Procurement (ECB/2007/5), OJ L 184, 14.7.2007, p. 34. The Decision can also be retrieved from the ECB web site.

The contract is intended initially for 4 years.

The contract shall be governed by and interpreted under German civil law.

The deadline for questions or requests for clarification relating to the invitation to tender from tenderers shall be 6 calendar days prior to the deadline for receipt of tenders.

Tenders and all supporting documents must be priced in euro and all contract payments will be made in euro. All communications, discussions and meetings will be conducted in English and no interpretation facilities will be provided. Tenderers are also informed that presentations, interviews, and/or site visits may be required to confirm information contained in their offers.

The ECB reserves the right not to make any award and reserves the right to accept all or part of any tender unless the tenderer expressly stipulates otherwise in their tender. The ECB reserves the right to disqualify any applicant who provides information which proves to be incorrect.

The ECB will not be liable for any costs, nor shall it reimburse any expenses or losses that tenderers may incur in connection with the submission of their proposals. Proposals received will not be returned and will remain the property of the ECB.

Applications shall be delivered, sealed in an envelope, not bearing any indication of the candidate on the envelope, or in the franking, clearly marked with the contract name and addressed as in I.1 above, so as to arrive no later than the date and time specified in IV.3.4 above.

Tenders shall be delivered, sealed in an envelope, not bearing any indication of the tenderer on the envelope, or in the franking, clearly marked with the contract name and addressed as in I.1 above, so as to arrive no later than the date and time specified in IV.3.6 above.

Tenders may be rejected if the required information is not provided in the stated format at the time of tendering. It is the responsibility of tenderers to ensure that their tender is delivered not later than the deadline indicated in IV.3.6 above. The ECB may consider any tenders received after that time. Tenders received in electronic format, or by facsimile will not be considered.
